

Occupational Health & Safety Policy

Meneghello is committed to establishing and maintaining the highest standards of occupational safety and health for all employees.

This will be achieved by ensuring that:

- The appropriate resources and efforts are effectively utilised in the areas of accident and injury prevention.
- Employees are given instruction on correct techniques for performing the job, incorporating instruction of safe working practices and procedures and an awareness of all hazards associated with their work.
- Employees participate in improving standards of workplace safety and health.
- Management consult and cooperate with the safety committee on workplace safety and health issues.
- Written procedures and instructions are provided to ensure safe systems of work are implemented.
- Meneghello's current standards and codes of practice are compliant with legislative requirements.
- Management are held accountable for the implementation of this Policy in their area of responsibility.

Employees must ensure that they follow all OH&S policies and procedures, report all hazards to their supervisors, and ensure their own safety, the safety of fellow employees and all persons on the worksite.

If an employee has doubts about any aspect of this Policy, they must seek clarification from their manager or the Managing Director. This Policy shall be reviewed periodically and disciplinary action may be taken against any employee found to have breached its principals.
